

and February. That is 760,000 workers whose unemployment has expired who cannot find jobs. That is 760,000 families, many of whom have children, who have lost their unemployment compensation, have no income, cannot find jobs.

My friend on the other side of the aisle, the President and the Republican leadership, even though a lot of Republicans want to support it but the President and the Republican leadership will not bring it up, have said no to extending unemployment compensation for those 760,000 workers, those 760,000 families.

Last week, I visited a group of about 50 or 60 machine-shop operators in Akron in my district, in the city of Akron, Ohio. Right before I spoke, a man walked forward and put just a plastic bag full of brochures like this in front of me, and what they are is a bag of about five times this size.

He had gotten several hundred of these every month. These are auction notices he receives in his company, his machine shop, where he employs 10, 15 workers, something like that. Most of the companies represented there last week when I talked to them, were small manufacturers, 10, 20, 50, 100, maybe one company was 150. Most of them were very small manufacturers. But they said they were getting these auction notices from companies all over the United States, and they are basically fire sales, get out of business sales.

This is an auction notice from Houston, Texas. Large capacity fabricating and machine shop closing. They are selling their capital equipment to anyone who will buy it. This is from a company in Springfield, Ohio. Surplus to the ongoing operation of this small manufacturing company. They are selling their surplus equipment. They do not have customers so they are laying off workers. This is another one. Plant closed, everything sells. This is another one. This one is from Cincinnati, Ohio, another company which says excess equipment due to corporate outsourcing.

This one is from Medina, Ohio, just south of my district. Fax facility closed. All must go. This is from Anderson, Indiana. Assets no longer required in the continuing operations because of foreign competition and outsourcing. This is one from Portland, Maine. This is from Newfoundland, New Jersey. This is one from Warrenton, Pennsylvania, a company going out of business. Willoughby, Ohio. Kent, Ohio.

Companies all over this country, Mr. Speaker, are going out of business, laying off 10 and 20 and 50 and 100 workers. Manufacturing jobs. One out of six manufacturers jobs in my State has been lost since George Bush became president. His answer to every single bad piece of economic news is more tax cuts for the richest people in our country and more trade agreements like NAFTA that will ship jobs overseas; that will hemorrhage jobs to Mexico and China.

Here is the result of the President's economic policy. It is plant closing after machine shop closing after downscaling and downsizing because of outsourcing, because of foreign competition, because of the fact that this President has no manufacturing policy whatsoever. One out of six manufacturing jobs in my State of Ohio has simply gone away in the last 3 years.

As the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. PALLONE) said, George Bush will be the first President since Herbert Hoover to have lost jobs during his time in office to the tune of about 3 million jobs, it looks like.

Going back to those 760,000 workers who have seen their unemployment expire. While Members of Congress get paid $3,000 a week, $3,000 a week, this body has absolutely failed, just failed, just ignored, just brazenly, callously been disdainful of those workers who have lost their jobs, cannot find work, and had their unemployment benefits expire.

This is not welfare, this is unemployment. It is called unemployment insurance. It is insurance in case you are laid off. These are 760,000 workers whose unemployment has expired. This Congress is too callous and too hard-hearted to help those 760,000 families while our economic policies continue to fail.

TRIBUTE TO THE GIRL SCOUTS OF AMERICA AND THE GIRL SCOUTS OF GUAM

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. BURNS). Pursuant to the order of the House of January 20, 2004, the gentleman from Guam (Ms. BORDALLO) is recognized during morning hour debates for 5 minutes.

Ms. BORDALLO. Mr. Speaker, as the Girl Scouts of America celebrate their 92nd anniversary this Friday, March 12, and the Guam Girl Scouts celebrate their 69th anniversary, I would like to take this time to commend the organization for its continuing commitment to improving the lives of young girls in America and abroad.

The Girl Scouts have fostered the individual talents of the young girls they serve through learning activities focusing on education, health, physical fitness, community service, and cultural exchange. The Girl Scouts have helped instill strong leadership and decision-making skills in millions of young girls.

Through its U.S.A. Girl Scouts Overseas, Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. serves approximately 16,000 girls in more than 81 countries. Guam Girl Scouts is one of the longest-serving community organizations on Guam. They have served thousands of young girls, including myself, since 1935.

Last week, representatives from our local Girl Scouts organization, along with Girl Scouts from across the Nation, journeyed to Washington, D.C. to speak to Members of Congress about issues affecting the program and our society today.

I was visited by Monica Pido, President of the Board of Directors of the Guam Girl Scouts, and Vickie Fish, Executive Director of Guam Girl Scouts. I was impressed by the range of programs that they are undertaking to increase girls' safety, promote math and science education, and improve girls' health and fitness. Preventing youth violence in communities and ensuring girls feel emotionally and physically safe is one of the latest proactive efforts of our Girl Scouts.

Their P.A.V.E. the Way youth violence prevention initiative is an innovative way to improve the safety of girls and communities throughout our Nation.

Girl Scouts provide a structure and stability to girls between the ages of 5 and 17 years old, teaching them lessons and building character that will last a lifetime. Girl Scouts really make a difference, one girl at a time.

Today, with more than 50 million women across the Nation having been involved in girl scouting as a child, the difference Girl Scouts make is enormous. As a former girl scout, I can attest to the quality and success of these programs.

I congratulate Girl Scouts as they celebrate their anniversary and hope that they will continue to be a part of many girls' lives in the years to come.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, the Reverend Daniel P. Coughlin, offered the following prayer:

We will praise You, Lord, with open hearts. We will recount all Your wonders. We will rejoice in You and be glad, just judge of heaven and Earth.

You are enthroned on high overseeing every nation and all peoples. You hold the just in Your balance and destroy the wicked. You take up the cause and interests of this government as all others. You will guide the course of events here in Congress. In the end, its accomplishments will be measured and its failures will not be overlooked. For You are a stronghold for the oppressed and will judge everyone with truth.
